The York Region Centre for Community Safety (YRCCS) is a co-located, coordinated single access point for services within York Region to meet the needs of those affected by intimate partner violence/domestic violence/sexual violence and abuse through an integrated, holistic access to services.

YRCCS is committed to recruiting members to its Board of Directors who reflect the diversity of the clients and community we serve. For that reason, we encourage applications from individuals who identify with any lived experiences in connection with the issues impacting the women we serve.

Indigenous People, People from African/Caribbean/Black communities, Racialized People, People with disabilities, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transsexual, Transgender, Queer People and people from historically under-represented equity seeking groups are strongly encouraged to apply. YRCCS is committed to providing accommodation to people who are differently abled.

Why are you interested in becoming a member of the Board of Directors of YRCCS?

What is the expertise and skills that you bring to the Board of Directors of YRCCS? Please include any lived experience.
